

Mill 6 Collaborative

Contact: John Edward O'Brien, Artistic Director
Irene Daly or Antoine Gagnon, Co-Managing Directors
617-240-6317 info@Mill6.org

For Immediate Release: February 2011

Mill 6 Presents the New England Premiere of The Monster Tales

Opens April 30th, 2011, at the Factory Theatre in Boston

Running in our month-long repertory with Whistler in the Dark: Stories, Fables & Lies

In this lovely and fantastical fable a young woman discovers her singular humanity when a monster appears from under her bed one night. The woman and the monster tell each other a series of original tales where children grow in gardens and maestros can make music with only their hands and where grief and love are the two most powerful emotions.

"Touching and inordinately wise" - nytheatre.com

Artistic Director John Edward O'Brien and IRNE nominee Barlow Adamson will direct. The cast features Sasha Castroverde, Irene Daly, Nathaniel Gundy, Becca A. Lewis, Lonnie McAdoo & Liz Rimar.

Playwright Mary Jett Parsley attended college at Duke University and received her MFA in dramatic writing from NYU. She has been the recipient of a Playwrights Fellowship from the North Carolina Arts Council and a grant from the Pilgrim Project. Other plays include Right Side Wrong, First Born, Tar River Love Story and Locked Doors and Lightning Bugs, which received the Southeastern Theater Conference's Charles M. Gretchell award and was a winner of the Charlotte Repertory Theatre's New Plays in America Festival.

"Mill 6 is one of those little companies with big talent". - Theatermirror.com

Celebrating our 13th year and 27th production, Mill 6 continues finding plays we love and bringing them to Boston. 2010 saw the return of our popular new play series The T Plays. And also included our participation in the 12th Boston Theatre Marathon as well as the world premiere of Chris Keating's A Stone on the Water. Since its' founding Mill 6's productions include 16 world premieres and 8 Boston/New England premieres. We have performed across Greater Boston, Cape Cod and New York City. Join us at the Factory Theatre on Tremont Street in Boston's historic South End, the most unique black box space in the city.

The Monster Tales* written by Mary Jett Parsley

Directed by Barlow Adamson & John Edward O'Brien

Presented by the Mill 6 Collaborative

The Factory Theatre, 791 Tremont Street in Boston's South End

April 30-May 20 2011

Joining Whistler in the Dark for our month-long repertory: Stories, Fables and Lies

Tickets $20

Student Tickets $10

For tickets call 800-838-3006 or log on to brownpapertickets.com

Info and full schedule at Mill6.org or write: info@Mill6.org

For press tickets call Artistic Director John Edward O'Brien at 617-240-6317

"Keep your eye out for the Mill 6 Theatre Collaborative" - South End News